

Rule 5 – All my choices matter. They have consequences.

Name: _____

DRAW A LINE MATCHING A CHOICE TO A CONSEQUENCE

- | | |
|---|--|
| Playing with matches | feeling tired and sad |
| Running across the road | feeling guilty |
| Hitting your brother/sister | getting sunburnt |
| Calling children names | starting a fire |
| Blaming someone else for what you did | feeling sick |
| Eating too many lollies | getting hit by a car |
| Hanging around someone who makes poor choices | not being included in the game next time |
| Going to bed too late | hurting someones feelings |
| Not brushing your teeth | getting into trouble |
| Getting angry when you lose the game | making them cry |
| Not wearing a hat out in the sun | having bad teeth |

Read the situation below and fill in the boxes

SITUATION	POSSIBLE CONSEQUENCES
	If you say NO	If you say YES
Your friend notices money on the teacher's desk. He wants you to take it. You want your friend to like you and it would be great to have money to go to the tuck-shop.	Short term consequences	Short term consequences
You think about whether you should take the money.	Long term consequences	Long term consequences

I don't always have to get what I want. Disappointment is OK.